Ron, OK on doing the update to HQ..... I checked and LaRonda is out today. So yes if you get anything else, please send. I'm going to finalize it at around 3:30 so I can head home at 4.

A few inquiries so far since data has been posted. Everything was pretty easily handled..... no Qs on sodium.

Have a nice Easter, den.

Don't know if LaRonda is in today so I'll forward any update I get unless I hear she's in.

The link to the new data posted on the website was provided to staff from Congressman Marino and Senator Casey's offices, as well as to PADEP Special Deputy Secretary for External Affairs, Alisa Harris.
